

22 Nov 2024

Professional Diploma in Travel Health (online), LSTM

The next Professional Diploma in Travel Health run by the Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine, begins on 6 February 2025

The next Professional Diploma in Travel Health (online) run by the Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine (LSTM), begins on 6 February 2025.

The programme is open to registered doctors, nurses, pharmacists, and travel and expedition health professionals who wish to further develop their travel risk assessment and problem-solving skills in clinical practice.

Places are still available for the upcoming course. Further information about the course, together with application procedure can be found on the LSTM website.