Royal College of Nursing (RCN) and NaTHNaC Joint Travel Health Conference 2025

Registration is now open for the 8th RCN and NaTHNaC joint Travel Health Conference on Saturday 22 March 2025

The RCN and NaTHNaC joint Travel Health Conference returns for the 8th year on Saturday 22 March 2025.

The programme brings you the latest evidence-based research on a range of topics including vector-borne diseases, immune response to vaccines, travellers with special needs and much more. This event will be of interest to healthcare practitioners involved in delivering travel health advice to travellers from the UK, including nurses, physicians, pharmacists, and allied professionals.
